Online Dialogue on Disability and Small Business

- The Department of Labor (DOL) is running an online dialogue on disability inclusion in very small businesses (fewer than 50 employees)
  - Opportunity to provide ideas and insights
- DOL wants to learn about opportunities and challenges these businesses face when hiring and keeping disabled workers, following laws such as Section 503, and providing supports
- DOL also wants to hear from disabled entrepreneurs
- DOL wants your input!
  - Participate through May 6 at this link (use QR code below or the link in the chat)
  - Open to the public
The Employer Assistance and Resource Network on Disability Inclusion (EARN) is a resource for employers seeking to recruit, hire, retain, and advance qualified employees with disabilities. This publication is fully funded by the U.S. Department of Labor’s Office of Disability Employment Policy (ODEP) under cooperative agreement No. 23475OD000002-01-00 with Cornell University. The total five-year cost of this agreement amounts to $10,000,000. This document does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the U.S. Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the U.S. Government.
