Section III: Program Deficiencies In The Disability Program

Section IV: Plan to Recruit and Hire Individuals with Disabilities

Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. §1614.203(d)(1)(i) and (ii), agencies must establish a plan to increase the recruitment and hiring of individuals with disabilities. The questions below are designed to identify outcomes of the agency's recruitment program plan for PWD and PWTD

A. PLAN TO IDENTIFY JOB APPLICATIONS WITH DISABILITIES

1. Describe the programs and resources the agency uses to identify job applicants with disabilities, including individuals with targeted disabilities.

Participation in recruitment/outreach events, fairs, and conferences, i.e., to market the United States Mint and its job opportunities. Attendance at veteran hiring events. · Continued partnerships with local military Wounded Warrior programs to include internships for military members. · Continued partnership with the Veterans Administration (VA) Employment Coordinator to identify disabled veteran applicants for potential job opportunities. · Continued outreach with local Department of Rehabilitation offices to identify potential applicants with disabilities. · The West Point Mint utilizes the Workforce Recruitment Program (WRP) · The San Francisco Mint has an ongoing relationship with the California Department of Rehabilitation to review resumes of potential Schedule A applicants. · The Philadelphia Mint EEO and HR works with the New Jersey Department of Labor & Workforce Development to review resumes of potential Schedule A applicants.

2. Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. §1614.203(a)(3), describe the agency's use of hiring authorities that take disability into account (e.g., Schedule A) to recruit PWD and PWTD for positions in the permanent workforce

Schedule A is available for use along with Veteran Appointment Authorities to non-competitively appoint PWD and PWTD and veterans with service-connected disability rating of 30% or more. The Selective Placement Coordinator has established numerous external partnerships with private and public organizations that assist PWD/PWTD candidates in finding meaningful employment.

3. When individuals apply for a position under a hiring authority that takes disability into account (e.g., Schedule A), explain how the agency (1) determines if the individual is eligible for appointment under such authority; and, (2) forwards the individual's application to the relevant hiring officials with an explanation of how and when the individual may be appointed.

When individuals submit their resumes directly to the Selective Placement Coordinator (SPC) for vacant positions within Mint, the SPC refers the resumes to the designated servicing HR Specialist at ARC. The HR Specialist reviews the resumes to determine qualifications. If qualifications and Schedule A eligibility are met, the resumes are then forwarded to the hiring manager for consideration, with guidance on selection procedures.

4. Has the agency provided training to all hiring managers on the use of hiring authorities that take disability into account (e.g., Schedule A)? If “yes”, describe the type(s) of training and frequency. If “no”, describe the agency’s plan to provide this training.

Attend various events held at military installations focusing on service members and veterans for future civilian employment at the Mint. Continued partnership with the Veterans Administration (VA) i.e. Veterans Administration Employment Coordinator. Based on feedback from EEOC, the Mint plans to broaden the outreach activities to include America Job Centers, Centers for Independent Living, and Employment Network Service providers, as appropriate.
